

Automated Transfer

The Cecilian Bank offers the ability for a customer to establish an automated funds transfer via link to another deposit or credit account for overdraft protection.

- There is a $2 fee associated with each automated transfer.
- Advances from the account are made in multiples of fifty ($50) dollars.
- If presented item(s) exceed funds available in both checking and funding account, the item(s) presented may be returned and you may be charged an overdraft fee of thirty-two ($32) dollars for each item.
